

April 29, 2026

RE: Amanda Edwards Reference Letter

Dear Sirs & Madams:

I am pleased to provide this reference letter on behalf of Amanda Edwards. I have known Amanda for over two years, since having joined Clearwater Solutions as its CEO.

During this time, Amanda has played an essential role as our Director of Business Development in planning, designing and creating proposals and presentations for various client opportunities. This effort has included graphic design, content creation, proposal organization and flow, and final production and delivery logistics.

Amanda has demonstrated a strong ability to self-manage project timelines, providing consistent communication of project progress and ensuring adherence to deadlines. In critical time-sensitive situations, Amanda has also made herself available in off-hours to ensure 'the job gets done'.

In addition, Amanda has been a strong team player and maintains a positive attitude despite the pressures inherent with proposal deadlines.

For these reasons and more, I am pleased to provide this letter of reference and would strongly recommend her as an employment candidate.

If you have any further questions regarding Amanda's performance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Paul Quentel', with a stylized flourish at the end.

Paul Quentel
CEO